Who is eligible?

The law specifies that any person over the age of 18 who is a citizen of the United Kingdom, The European Community, or the Commonwealth can be a Councillor if they are an elector in, work in, live in or live within three miles of the area of the local Council is eligible. Certain circumstances will mean that an individual may be “disqualified” from standing; check with your council if unsure.

What will I do if elected?

- Attend Council meetings
- Raise matters that the Council can consider and formally decide to take action about at meetings
- Make informed contributions which influence the debate on the business that needs to be decided at those meetings
- Participate in the Council’s decision making process, which in itself is subject to strict rules and guidelines
- Represent the Council externally
